LIFT SLAB GOES TO COLLEGE TO BUILD FOR TEXTILE EDUCATION

In The South

ARCHITECTS: LYLES, BISSETT, CARLISLE & WOLFF

A 520,000 square foot Student Dormitory built in record time at Clemson College, in South Carolina, is another part of the South's continuing program of building education and research facilities.

This revolution in building utilized the slabs for floors of the dormitory after lifting them to their appointed height. No framework of steel was needed—time and money were saved from the start.

But more than a revolutionary building is underway at Clemson—a growing center of textile education is making it more attractive than ever for firms in any branch of the textile industry to select the South for their home for profits both today and tomorrow.

CONCESSION STANDS

Concession stands are located immediately behind the top row of seats on either side of the playing field. The stands handle soft drinks, sandwiches, popcorn, peanuts, candy, etc. Vendors will sell these items from the aisles, also.

EMERGENCIES

In an emergency of any nature, come to the back of the pressbox. Please remember however, that since important business is being conducted within the pressbox, only cases of strict emergency can be given consideration. Telephone is located in information booth.

RESTROOMS

Ladies' restrooms are located on both sides of the stadium on the east end. Men's restrooms are located on both sides of the stadium on the West end.

IN LEAVING

In leaving the stadium, please give utmost heed to the directions from the officers controlling traffic. Every care has been taken to move cars from the college campus in the most efficient manner and cooperation from drivers will speed up the process considerably.

The NEW Clemson

Those persons who have not been on the Clemson campus in several years are in for a shock when they make their current tour of the College. The real old timer won't recognize much more than the tower of the main building and John C. Calhoun's mansion, while visitors of as recently as five years ago will also find countless evidences at every turn of "a new Clemson."

Though almost everyone today thinks of construction at Clemson in terms of the new dormitories and the agricultural group, this rather phenomenal growth started back in 1950 with the building of the new steam plant without which none of the later buildings could have been utilized.

To keep up with advances made in farm mechanization and soil conservation the agricultural engineering building was built that same year replacing an old wooden barn which had been in use since 1910. Also completed then was the seed laboratory in which better seed for the farms of the state are developed.

The now famous Clemson House and its surrounding apartment units were completed in the fall of 1950 relieving a critical housing shortage among the faculty and staff members.

During the next year the chemistry building was built and equipped to afford facilities for all Clemson students who must take basic chemistry as well as for the chemistry majors who leave the college ready to take their places in the mushrooming chemical industry in the South. In the same period the textile building, completed in 1938, was fully equipped with the latest textile machinery and devices.

In the fall of 1952 the Olin Foundation of Minneapolis, Minnesota, gave the college $445,000 with which to construct a building to house teaching and research facilities in the field of ceramics. This move was made to help in developing South Carolina's relatively untouched, but potentially great, natural clay resources. Later the Foundation also provided $180,000 to fill the building with the best ceramic manufacturing and testing equipment on the market.

Completed this fall, the new dormitory project contains 1000 rooms to house two students each, a dining room to accommodate 4000, complete kitchen facilities, a spacious lobby, an information center, a visitors lounge, a student canteen, club rooms, a small chapel, and a barber shop.

This structure with its five floors and 500,000 square feet of floor space is by far the largest ever attempted using the lift slab system and is the first of its kind in the Southeast. As such it has attracted much attention in the construction and engineering professions.

Work is now underway on the new agricultural group which when finished will contain a plant and animal science building, a food industry building, and greenhouses.

HEAD COACH FRANK HOWARD

With Peahead Walker and Herman Hickman out of the college coaching field, Clemson's Frank Howard wins the "biggest character" award hands down. Like fellow Alabaman Walker and Tennessean Hickman, Coach

Howard has thrived on a reputation as jokester, hill-billy and country bumpkin. A thick Alabama drawl has helped the effect.

In reality, however, Frank Howard is one of the nation's most successful coaches. He's in his 24th year at Clemson — 15th as head coach and athletic director. Two of his teams — 1948 and 1950 — went unbeaten and were ranked in the "top ten" by the Associated Press.

Between 1948-51, Howard-coached elevens earned three bowl bids, defeating Missouri for the Gator Bowl Championship on January 1, 1949, and whipping Miami for the Orange Bowl Crown on January 1, 1951. Miami beat the Tigers in 1952 for the Gator Bowl title.

A single wing expert for 22 seasons, Coach Howard changed to the T-formation in 1953 and was outgaining such veteran T-teams as Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Auburn before the first campaign was over. A notoriously hard worker, he and his assistants just dug into the new formation and came up with several variations of plays that would gain ground and score touchdowns.

In addition to his duties as football coach, Frank Howard is also kept busy with chores as athletic director at Clemson. At a recent meeting of athletic directors, he embarrassed several in attendance by asking "What do you do when your athletic program loses money? I've never been in that fix but have often wondered."

The young Howard was reared in the Mobile Ala., area, attending the local high school where he made quite a name for himself as student, leader and athlete. He was considered too small at 180 pounds for Alabama but attended the University at Tuscaloosa anyhow and was soon making his presence felt in the line from his guard position. He was a first stringer on Wallace Wade's Rose Bowl team of the 1930 season, being called the "Little Giant" on the Crimson Tide's "Herd of Red Elephants."

Still very active, the Clemson mentor insists on coaching his linemen altogether, in addition to supervising the over-all practice. Until recently, he didn't mind demonstrating what he meant about blocking though wearing no shoulder pads.

Coach Howard is married to the former Anna Tribble of Anderson. They are the parents of two children, Alice 18, and Jimmy 12.

ASSISTANT COACHES -- CLEMSON COLLEGE

RUSS COHEN, Vanderbilt '17, is the senior member of the varsity coaching staff in age, though a latecomer (1947) in joining Clemson . . . A former head coach at LSU and Cincinnati, Cohen was also an assistant to Wallace Wade during that coach's years at Alabama in the 1920's . . . He's considered a defensive specialist, serving in that capacity since his arrival in Tigertown.

COVINGTON (Goat) McMILLAN, Clemson '30, returned to Clemson as backfield coach in 1937 after first serving as head coach at Griffin (Ga.) High and as an assistant at Furman . . . An All-South tailback at Clemson, he's coached some of the school's finest backs since arriving on the campus—Banks McFadden, Bobby Gage, Ray Mathews, Fred Cone, etc.

BOB JONES, Clemson '30, has been coaching at Clemson since his graduation — first working with the freshmen and more recently with the ends . . . During his playing days with the Tigers, he was an All-South end and captain of the varsity basketball team . . . Was head boxing coach until Clemson dropped the sport . . . Is chief counselor of the football players.

BOB SMITH, Furman '34 joined the Clemson varsity staff as a "T" specialist in 1950 on a part time basis, but has been a full time operator since early 1951 . . . Former assistant and head coach at Furman, he began experimenting with the "T" while stationed at Jacksonville in the Navy during World War II . . . He was named Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Coach of the Year in 1954 as Clemson won the A.C.C. championship.

The Chiquola Manufacturing Company was founded in 1902. Through constant adoption of new ideas, new methods and modern machinery it has continued to grow and play an important part in the industrial progress of South Carolina.

During this long period of successful operation under the same management, Chiquola has produced more than ONE BILLION YARDS of cotton fabrics; it has purchased more than FIFTY-TWO MILLION DOLLARS worth of cotton from the farmers of the South; it has paid MILLIONS of dollars in taxes to the City, County, State, and Federal Governments; it has donated thousands of dollars to schools, churches, orphanages, and charitable organizations; and last but not least, it has paid more than TWENTY-SIX MILLION dollars in wages to the hundreds of fine people who have been on its payroll over the years.

Former CLEMSON MEN occupy important positions in our management and we are fully cognizant of the important part this outstanding institution is playing in the development of the South through the education of our leaders of tomorrow.

When autumn leaves are falling and the strains of Tiger Rag resound from the hills of the Blue Ridge, we lend our voice to the plaudits of the multitude with that old familiar refrain, "GO - TIGERS - GO"

V.P.I.-CLEMSON GAME TODAY FINDS MUCH AT STAKE

Many things are at stake in this afternoon's renewal of the Clemson College-Virginia Tech football rivalry, not the least of which is prestige for the schools' respective conferences — Atlantic Coast (for Clemson) and Southern (for V. P. I.).

A. C. C. TEAMS RANK HIGH

The Atlantic Coast Conference, which is composed of eight former Southern Conference members, figures itself "big time" in every sense of the word, and its brief history — one full season and two weeks in the current one, shows it to be just that. Maryland won the National Collegiate Championship last season as picked by the Associated Press and United Press and is currently among the "top ten" after a 20-0 victory over Kentucky in the opener of '54; Duke finished among the nation's "top twenty" in 1953 and appears to be even stronger this fall following a 52-0 rout of Pennsylvania last Saturday; South Carolina was rated among the "top twenty" nationally until the final weekend of the '53 campaign and is ranked even higher today after downing Army, 34-20, in their opener; Clemson, one of the nation's highest ranked football teams in 1948, 1950 and 1951, contributed the "best sport" in college football last fall in the form of quarterback Don King, recipient of the Boston Gridiron Club's "Swede" Nelson Award; and North Carolina, Wake Forest, North Carolina State and Virginia — other A. C. C. members — have also done well in the national limelight.

SOUTHERN SEEKS PRESTIGE

Southern Conference members, while not rating a "small time" tag, are nonetheless considered lesser important in the national roundups than ever before. West Virginia was the exception in 1953, though beaten by South Carolina; in 1954, it appears both West Virginia and Virginia Tech are as "big time" as any schools in the South. Actually, both schools have shown a strong inclination to gain membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Virginia Tech figures the best way to gain an invitation to join the A.C.C. is by compiling the best record possible — especially against A.C.C. opponents. That's exactly what Coach Frank Moseley has been doing to date, beating North Carolina State, 30-21, in the season opener and routing a good Wake Forest team, 32-0, last Saturday. A victory by the Gobblers over Clemson today would give them a 3-0 record against Atlantic Coast Conference competition and make them a good bet to go through the season unbeaten with a 4-0 mark in the A.C.C. (they have Virginia yet to meet) while winning the Southern Conference crown, also with a 4-0 mark.

TODAY'S RIVALRY DEADLOCKED

Even closer to home than conference prestige is school prestige, and Clemson and Virginia Tech find themselves deadlocked 5-5-1 in a series that goes back to 1900. Toughest game played by Coach John Heisman's undefeated 1900 Tiger eleven was with Virginia Tech, 12-5, and the very next season—1901—the Gobblers dealt the immortal Heisman one of his three losses in four years at Clemson, 17-11.

The Gobblers and Tigers played a scoreless tie in 1906, but for the next four meetings Virginia Tech held the upper hand, winning 6-0 in 1908 and 1909, and taking a pair of triumphs in the 1920s—25-6 in 1923 and 50-6 in 1924.

Clemson has prevailed ever since. A two-game series in 1935-36 found the Tigers victorious, 28-7 and 20-0, and a two-game series in 1945-46 resulted in 35-0 and 14-7 wins for Coach Frank Howard's team.

KING VS. WRIGHT

And in the all-star department, Clemson will match Don King, pre-season choice as the best back in the Atlantic Coast Conference, against Virginia Tech's Howie Wright, Southern Conference "Back of the Week" for two straight weeks.

King, who will probably see limited action only because of an injury suffered in the Presbyterian game, netted 779 yards running and passing in his final four games of 1953 and completed a 38-yard TD pass on his first play from scrimmage in 1954 to help beat P.C., 33-0. He did not play in the 14-7 loss to Georgia last week.

Wright, a left halfback, netted better than 100 yards rushing against both North Carolina State and Wake Forest and ranks fourth in the nation in that department after two weeks of play.

Facts and Figures About Virginia Tech

LOCATION

Virginia Tech is located in the Allegheny Mountains, 2,100 feet above sea level, in the historic town of Blacksburg, Virginia. Blacksburg, with a population of 3,300 permanent residents, is a fast-growing small town with only one main interest — Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

ENROLLMENT

Total enrollment, including graduate, undergraduate, and women students, exceeds 3,000.

HISTORICAL

Virginia Tech was established in 1872 as the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, under the provisions of the Land-Grant Act of 1862. The first session of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College began October 1, 1872, with 132 students. In 82 years the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, now Virginia Tech, has grown to have the largest undergraduate enrollment of any college in the State.

ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Virginia Tech is a member of the Southern Conference. In fact, Tech is one of the charter members, having helped to organize the conference when it was formed in 1921. In 1932 when the organization split into the Southern and Southeastern Conferences, Tech remained with the Southern Conference.

FOOTBALL STADIUM

All home football games at Virginia Tech are played in Miles Stadium. The stadium was built in 1926 and named in honor of Dr. Clarence P. (Sally) Miles, recent dean of the college.

NICKNAMES AND COLORS

Nicknames of Virginia Tech athletic teams include "Gobblers," "Techmen," and "The Orange and Maroon." Official colors are Orange and Maroon.

A Touchdown Is A Touchstone of Teamwork!

Though it takes but one man to make a touchdown, his teammates help to make it possible. The better the teamwork, the more victories. Star players are important, but nevertheless are dependent on every man doing his job.

A sale is like a touchdown in that it is crossing the business goal line. The salesman will sell better if he has a good organization or team behind him.

The Irving L. Wilson Company, manufacturer of Clemson uniforms, is constantly striving to improve the teamwork of its organization. We believe we serve our customers well only when every person in our organization, no matter what his job, performs his duties with efficiency, initiative, and good spirit.

DON KING — 1953 FOOTBALL'S TOP SPORTSMAN

When Clemson quarterback Don King was tapped by the Boston Gridiron Club as college football's 1953 recipient of the Nils (Swede) Nelson Award for Sportsmanship, his coaches, teammates and opponents alike were unanimous in their approval.

Though one incident in the Wake Forest game was largely responsible for the Boston's Club's selection, Don's natural traits of sportsmanship and unselfishness also figured in the choice.

Praising his teammates for their blocking and tackling, helping an opponent to his feet, refusing to let the countless words of acclaim written about him change his unspoiled outlook, King is everyone's favorite.

In the Wake Forest game, opposing quarterback Sonny George injured his knee and was stretched out on the field for several minutes while the Wake Forest trainer worked on him. Don King knelt over George and talked to him during most of this timeout, then returned to the Clemson huddle and told his teammates: "Listen, George has got a bad knee. If he gets hit on it again, he might not play any more this year or might even get hurt permanently. If you have to hit him again today, hit him high." The incident was told (and confirmed) by the Clemson regulars sometime later in the season.

BEST BET every time

The 3 T's that never vary

Taste

Carolina's Pride meat products processed in small batches, each batch carefully tasted—tested, insures fine flavor every time.

Tenderness

Only choice, young, grain-fed porkers are selected to insure greater tenderness. Each small batch is rigidly tested before going to market.

Texture

Just as in the cakes you bake, no meat product can be a real treat without fine texture. Each small batch must pass our strict texture tests before it is labeled Carolina's Pride.

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK

Each time you buy a Carolina's Pride product, you must be completely satisfied. If and when we fail you, tear the label from the wrapper and mail it to us with a short letter telling us what you paid and why you are not satisfied. We'll send you DOUBLE your purchase price promptly. Carolina's Pride, Greenwood, S.C.

You're sure of satisfaction—every time when your choice of franks is Carolina's Pride

These popular Southern Franks, you see, are not mass-produced for the national market. Carolina's Pride Franks are processed right here in South Carolina—in small batches—which permits rigid control at every step. What's more, the porkers are not a hodgepodge of all kinds of breeds from all over—each select pig is a special type, grain fed, and graded U.S. No. 1. The result is uniformity—always the same tempting flavor, always the same tender, lean meat.

That's our promise. If and when we fail you, tell us—and get your money back DOUBLE.

CLEMSON FROSH LOSE OPENER, BUT SHOW PROMISE

A missed extra point in the first quarter, followed by a couple of bad breaks in the penalty department during the final five minutes of play, resulted in Clemson's Frosh losing to N. C. State, 14-13 last Friday night.

After each team of yearlings had gotten two lost fumbles out of their systems in the opening minutes of their game as collegians, Clemson struck for the first touchdown on a sustained drive of 46 yards. It took but three plays—a two-yard run by right halfback Bob Wright, a four-yard rush by fullback Joe Stas and a 40-yard pass completion—quarterback Gene Crocker to end Billy Breedlove. Stas had his extra point try blocked.

State retaliated with a 65-yard sustained drive, set up by a 27-yard run to the Cub two by halfback Les Verano. Fullback Tony Guerrieri bulled over from there, and quarterback Tom Katich kicked his first of two extra points.

Midway through the second quarter, Clemson left halfback Fletcher Carter — whose 64 yards netted in seven carries topped other Cub carriers — broke loose on a 40-yard romp to set up a second TD. On the very next play, Crocker passed to end Wyatt Cox for 22 yards and the score. Olin Hunter converted to give Clemson a 13-7 halftime edge.

Following intermission, a Crocker pass intended for Breedlove was partially deflected by the Cub end into the hands of a State player who ran the ball back to the Clemson 13. Four plays later, the Wolfpack had scored, halfback Dick Hunter going over from the two. Katich made good on his second attempt to complete the scoring.

Crocker threw a 20-yard TD pass to Breedlove, who made a great catch, only to have an offsides penalty called against the Cubs. Moments later, halfback Harold Strange got away for a 24-yard run to the Wolfpack 5, but that, too, was called back because of a Clemson penalty.

Sparking the Cubs' line play were end Bill Few, tackle Johnny Thomason, guards Bob Giles and John Grdijan and center Bill Neely.

Clemson is Rebuilding in Basketball

Clemson's basketball team took a nosedive last winter after experiencing better-than-average success over a period of five years, but Coach Banks McFadden has what he thinks will be the remedy in the near future — namely, promising talent.

McFadden, who was a first team, All-America selection in 1939 in sparking Clemson to the Southern Conference championship, has one of the nation's sharpest shooters on hand for varsity play this winter in Bill Yarborough. Other lettermen returning to action are Tommy Smith, Bruce Holzschuh, Buddy Shook, Barry Ryan, Ben Crosland, "Doc" Morgan, and Billy Riser.

Up from last winter's freshman basketball team are "Rock" Stone, Dave Bauman, Bill Landers and Don Shealy.

And among the incoming freshmen are several outstanding players. They include: Carl Reamer of Philadelphia, Pa.; Eddie Attenberger of Greensburg, Pa.; Billy Williams of Moundsville, W. Va.; Jack Yockel of Jersey City, N. J.; Eddie Moncrief of Moultrie, Ga.; Francis Brothers of Greenville, S. C.; and Raymond Strock of Cope, S. C.

Facing perhaps their roughest basketball schedule in history in 1954-55, the Tigers aren't expected to climb much; however, in the next year or two, Clemson should give a good account of itself on the hardwood.

Clemson Football Network . . .

Only an expert radio announcer will be able to follow Clemson's tricky T-formation in 1954, so, naturally, Jimmy Coggins, dean of South Carolina's football play-by-play commentators, was signed by the new Clemson Football Network to broadcast the Tigers' schedule.

Coggins, owner of Newberry Radio Station WKDK, is an old hand at doing the play-by-play of Clemson football games. He followed the Tigers with mike in hand through the 1936-37-38 seasons and was back with them again in 1947-48-49. In 1948, Jimmy was present for 11 straight Clemson victories, including a thrilling 24-23 decision over Missouri in the Gator Bowl.

In more recent years, 1950-51-52, Coggins has done the play-by-play for Radio Station WIS and their "Game of the Week" broadcast. Last fall, the "dean" did the play-by-play of the North Carolina-South Carolina game in addition to many of the Newberry College contests.

Jimmy Coggins broke into radio 20 years ago with WSPA in Spartanburg, worked at WAIM in Anderson, at Cochran's Jewelry Store in Anderson and with Uncle Sam during World War II before going to Newberry as part owner of WKDK in 1949. He took over as full owner in 1952. Coggins has also been half owner of Union Radio Station WBCU for the past year and a half.

Ed Osborne, director of both the Clemson News Bureau and sports publicity office from 1947 through the spring of 1950, is one of the best qualified men in South Carolina to discuss Clemson football or football in general.

His genial personality and clear speaking voice will keep all listeners of Clemson games well filled in with hidden details of the action.

Osborne's radio experience consists of a three-year stay at Radio Station WMSC in Columbia as sales representative and sports director. Since early 1953, Ed has been co-owner, president and manager of Radio Station WBCU in Union.

Genuinely interested in football and the fortunes of Clemson, Osborne was the natural choice to work with Coggins in broadcasting the Clemson schedule in 1954.
